LEMON GROVE REVIEW

Vol. 20, No. 42 | Lemon Grove, California | Thursday, May 23, 1968 | Phone 469-0101 | Ten Cents

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Government Snooping

Several weeks ago the Census Bureau, which operates under the Commerce Department, sent a six-page questionnaire to this publication ordering that it be informed as to how many kilowatt hours of electricity this publication used last year; what the size of the office is of its building and nearly 100 other questions, all of which would have required hours of research. Failure to answer carried a penalty of a fine and possible imprisonment.

This publication felt that it, and other business firms which also were sent these forms, had become the target of excessive Census Bureau curiosity.

As it has advised its readers for so many years, this publication followed its own advice and got in touch with its Congressman. Instead of sending the unfilled questionnaires to the Cenus Bureau Department, it was sent to Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin who responded immediately.

His interest became the subject of a news release dated May 16. In his release, Congressman Van Deerlin said:

The complaint of the Lemon Grove Review, a weekly newspaper in his district has convinced Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D-San Diego, that small businesses are being "needlessly harassed" by the U. S. Census Bureau.

He said the House Commerce Committee, on which he serves, should investigate the situation. The committee has legislative jurisdiction over the Commerce Department, parent agency of the Census Bureau.

Van Deerlin's constituent, Max Goodwin, editor of the weekly newspaper, was asked to furnish more than 100 separate items of information on a six-page "Census of Manufacturers" form.

"Many of the questions are necessary, if the Government is to obtain the information it must have to chart the course of our economy," the San Diego Congressman said. "But many others seem whimsical and totally irrelevant to legitimate purposes of the census.

"Unfortunately, respondents are required by law to answer all the questions — subject to penalties that could include jail."

Although the punishment authorized is rarely invoked against anyone in defiance of the census, Van Deerlin said bureau employees have gone far beyond the intent of Congress, "and far beyond what any sensible administrator would permit."

His publisher friend told the Congressman that "to dig up the data demanded" in the form would cost his company about $100 in auditing and research expenses.

"I can sympathize with this man,' 'Van Deerlin said. "In effect, the Government is charging him money to invade his privacy."

He said the "entire census picture" should be examined by Congress, with a view toward possible corrective legislation.

"It's not just the businessmen, of course, who are the targets of this type of bureaucratic snooping," he said. "A form the Census Bureau is planning for the 1970 population count contains more than 120 questions covering 67 subjects and would be distributed to some 16 million citizens in all walks of life.

"Much of the information that is being sought today is necessary for the intelligent direction of our country.

"But detail of our private lives and fortunes are just plain none of the Government's business."

Happy Birthday, Balboa Park

San Diego's Balboa Park will be officially 100 years old on May 26.

It was on that date in 1868 that 1400 acres were dedicated as a public park.

The story is best told, according to the S. D. Recreation Department, by a plaque erected in 1928 at the first arch drivers encounter going east on El Prado after they cross the Cabrillo Bridge. Headed "To commemorate the forsight and civic wisdom of the founders of Balboa Park this tablet is erected by the people of San Diego."

It reads, "May 26, 1868 on the petition of Alonzo E. Horton and Ephriam W. Morse these 1400 acres of pueblo lands were dedicated by the trustees of the city, Jose Estudillo, Marcus Schiller Joshua Sloane, to be forever a public park."

The tablet concludes, "In the year 1928 the city gratefully honors the memory of these citidens and officials of 1868."

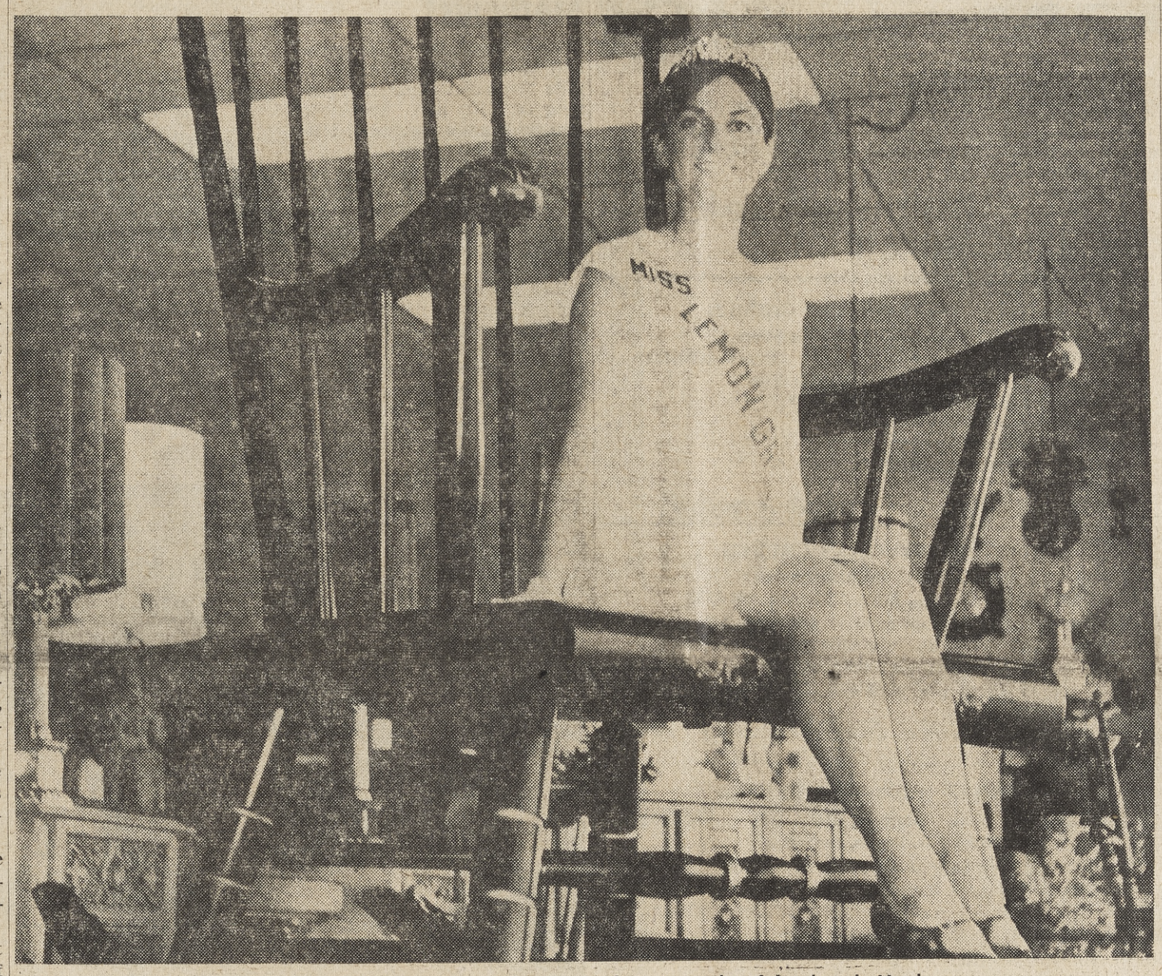
San Diego's population at the time of the dedication was 2,301 and there were but 915 houses.

The action of the Board of Trustees was ratified by the State Legislature on Feb. 4, 1870, but in 1871 a move was made to put the park lands up for sale. The move was protested by almost the whole population of the city.

The State Supreme Court theen and later upheld the original motion establishing the park site.

Improvements to the park did not begin until 1889, but the major developments were the result of the Panama-California International Exposition of 1915-16 and the California-Pacific International Exposition of 1935-36.

Those who take time to read the plaque never fail to agree with the foresight and civic wisdom of those leaders 100 years ago.



ON DISPLAY: Miss Lemon Grove is shown as she sits in a Boston style rocker. The display at Warren's Furniture on Broadway is more than 7 feet tall.
The chair was manufactured in Tell City, Indiana. It is a reproduction of a small antique Boston Style rocker. The chair is made of hard rock Maple.
The store has more than 15 styles of rocking chairs on display. They range from modern style rockers to old time rocking chairs from the farmhouse era.

Helix Students Collect $3,000 For Small Village

Dividends that will come for years will start in the very near future. Students at Helix High School have helped students in a remote South American village by collecting some $3,000 to help them in school construction.

Of the total, some $2,000 will be used to buy the building materials, and local native workers will supply the labor under a program sponsored by the Peace Corps.

"The Peace Corps school-to-school program requires a minimum of $1,000," according to Howard Hill, C.A.S.H. (Construct a School House) drive chairman.

"We were not sure we could do it in two weeks. But we're more than pleased with the response."

Strong support in the first period classe carried this drive through. Highlanders sold peace symbols, bonds, and carnations. A rummage-art sale brought in $500.

"Miss Mary Garcia's first period class of 23 girls donated $310.76, or an average of more than $13 per girl," Mr. Robert Woods, ASB advisor said.

Miss Garcia's class held a swap meet, a bake sale, collected newspapers, and made and sold flowers to achieve their high percentage.

A highlight of the drive was the appearance of the Gordian Knot, a Hollywood singing group, who performed in a special assembly.

"Proceeds from this drive will be sent to the Peace Corps headquarters in Washington. D.C.," Hill said. "They will select the village where the school is to be constructed."

Money raised in addition to the $2,000 will be divided between the Red Cross and the support of an orhan.

Tax Relief Seen Possible

"Many east county residents are suffering from too-high taxes," San Diego City Councilman Harry Scheidle said Monday at a luncheon meeting at Denny's in Lemon Grove.

Scheidle is candidate for the County Board of Supervisors in the Third District.

One approach that might be explored is for holding in obey-

Post Office Dedication Open House Saturday

The new Lemon Grove Post Office will be dedicated Saturday in a ceremony that will be attended by Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin and Walter Spolar, special assistant to the regional director of the Post Office Department at San Francisco. An Open House will follow the dedication.

The dedication ceremony will be held at 3 p.m. in the parking area in the rear of the new building at 7938 Broadway.

Master of ceremonies will be Frank Shughrue, president of the L.G. Chamber of Commerce.

The Lemon Grove Junior High School Band under the direction of Harry Weisgerber will supply music.

Congressman Van Deerlin will present the building to Postmaster Francis Faucher. Spolar will review the events leading up to the construction of the facility.

As part of the ceremony, the Rev. Jimmy Johnston of the Skyline Wesleyan Methodist church will give the invocation and the benediction will be by the Right Rev. John McDonagh of St. John of the Cross Catholic church.

The Colors will be presented by Tom Little, Commander of the L.G. VFW organization. Dave Engle and Dale Willey, both postal employees, will jointly lead the pledge of allegiance.

Engle is president of the local branch of the United Federation of Postal Clerks. Willey is representative of the National Association of Letter Carriers.

Francis Faucher

Light refreshments will be served during the Open House following the dedication.

The Lemon Grove Post Office was commissioned Sept. 22, 1893. In 1914 it became a third class facility and was advanced to second class in 1923. In 1951, when postal receipts topped $50,000, the facility was advanced to first class. Last year, receipts exceeded $290,000, Postmaster Faucher said.

The new building was erected by R. W. Johnson Construction Company for the Westgate Realty Co. The Post Office Department leases the building from Westgate.

Faucher, the present postmaster, has held the post for the epast 19 years. During that time the facility has been moved three times.

Banquet Booked By Postal People

A dinner will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the L.G. Bowlero following the Open House at the Post Office. A no-host cocktail hour will precede the dinner.

The dinner is open to the public at $3.50 a person. Reservations may be made to T. N. Hale, assistant postmaster at 466-5878 or 466-3263.

Also included are relevant selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. GAS MASK DRILL: Duane Zumwalt (left), 15, of 2281 Cyress, Lemon Grove, is shown at a special pre-military "Medical Cadet Corps" camp held in southern California's San Bernardino mountains earlier this week (May 12-18).
Zumwalt is receiving instruction in proper use of military gas mask from captian William Davis of San Diego before entering gas chamber at the coamp, at which some 80 young Seventh-day Adventists from throughout southern California spent three days in rugged, military type training.
The camp was designed to train young Adventists, who will not bear arms, to prepare to serve effeiciently in the Armed Forces in noncombatant positiosn. Many Adventists currently serve in Vietnam, some of them as front-line combat medics.

Coronation Service Held At Bancroft Baptist Church

Eleven girls were recognized in a presentation and coronation service at the Bancroft Baptist Church, 2300 Bancroft dr., in Spring Valley.

Three girls have attained the rank of Queen. They are Sheri Godley, Helen Mary Smead and Janie York. This is the highest step of service to be attained in Girls' Auxiliary.

Pages and crown bearers for this occasion were David Anderson, Harold Smith and Ralph York. Also in attendance were flower girls, Judy Donahue, Kim Richards and Kimberly Ross.

Other girls who have made forward steps since the last presentation service were Maidens: Rhonda Morgan, Tammy O'Mary, Darla Prince, Teresa Spencer and Gail Willardson; Ladies-in-Waiting: Debbie Herron, Brenda Whitaker and Linda Whitaker.

According to a report from the pastor, Rev. Lewis E. Ginn, the candlelight ceremony was conducted with the theme of "Rainbow Round the Throne."

The chancel area of the church was beautifully decorated with a hugh rainbow embossed over a field of blue with silver stars with a backdrop.

Each girl recited some of her missionary, Church and Bible knowledge learned in her progress. There was a reception for all the girls making forward steps of advancement.

Girls' Auxiliary is the largest missionary organization for girls in the world. It helps girls to see the world with its many peoples, customs, colors, cultures and needs — the world that God loved and gave His Son to save.

The reality of life comes closer to each girl as she tries to put her missionary knowledge of prayer, study and stewardship into action in her own community.

Know who had the loudest voice in history? My guess would certainly have to be Alexander the Great. Centuries ago, he designed a huge megaphone twelve feet long. He mounted it on a hilltop and directed his vast armies by shouting into it.

We've certainly come a long way since that early time. Today, you can talk in normal conversational tones, holding the mouthpiece of the phone about a half inch from your lips and be heard half-a-world away. I'm sure that, as great as he was, even Alexander the Great would be amazed.

Jerry Lowery, L.G. Grid Star To Lend Sparkle at Loyola U.

A Lemon Grove youth has received a sports scholarship at Loyala University, Los Angeles.

He is Jerry Lowery, of 1565 Skyline dr. Lowery was the Grossmont League passing champion last fall and the quarterback that set every passing record in Mt. Miguel's High School's history.

Although only 5'8" tall, was sought by several schools, among which were Occidental, Cal Lutheran, Whittier, the Coast Guard Academy, the University of Arizona, Dartmouth and Grossmont College.

Offers ranged up to full scholarships; he will receive financial aid from Loyola.

Loyola, after a 17 year absence from the gridiron, resumed football last fall and compiled a 6-3 winning season while leading the West Coast in "small college" attendance. The team produced one Little All-American.

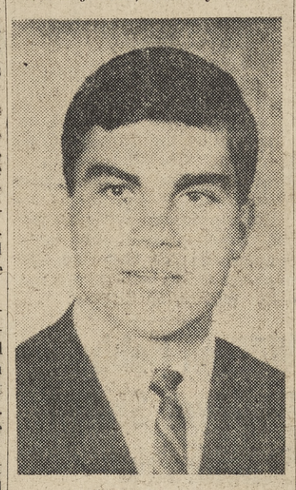
In his wo varsity years at Spring Valley's Mt. Miguel High School, Lowery set every passing record in the school's ten year history.

As a junior and senior he accumulated just over 2000 yards total offense, threw the longest passes, passed for more touchdowns, attempted and completed more passes than any previous quarterback at the school.

He also set a single game record for passing when he threw for 272 yards and three touchdowns against Monte Vista last October.

On All-League

As a junior, Lowery was second in the County only to Brian Sipe, Co-CIF Player of the Year, in the number of touchdown passes thrown. Lowery had 14 to Sipe's 16, as a result of his performance, he was named All-league Honorable Mention.



Jerry Lowery

Last year, Lowery was named 2nd team All-league, though he led the league in passing from the beginning to the end of the season.

In fact, before a hand injury at the season's midpoint, he was three hundred yards ahead of his nearest competitor.

Perhaps the outstanding highlights of his career in Spring Valley were:: his first varsity game in which he led Mt. Miguel to a 50-19 victory over Sweetwater (Sept. '66) setting a school record for points scored in one game; the 26-0 victory over El Cajon (October '66) in which he threw three touchdown passes and scored one himself; and, when he threw for 272 yards and three touchdowns in the second half of the game against Monte Vista (26-0) last September.

Good Student

At Mt. Miguel, Lowery was on the Student and Class Councils; was a member of the California Scholarship Federation, which requires a B average; he was chosen Boy of the Month, December-1967, for Science.

He founded and has served as the only president of the weight lifting club.

Lowery was elected president of th school's Key Club but only served two weeks when he was elected Lt. Governor of the Key Clubs International, 11th District.

He participated in conventions of the Key Clubs at Monterey, California, and Louisville, Kentucky.

At Loyola University, Lowery plans to major in History and Political Science followed by law school.

Loyola, which does not observe the NCAA ban on freshman participating in varsity football, plans to use him as a quarterback and/or defensive back this fall.

The school's schedule includes: Azuza-Pacific, UC Riverside, UC San Diego, St. Mary's, U of San Francisco, La Verne U and Southern Utah.

Mount Miguel High Sports Roundup

by John Nicholson

The Mt. Miguel Swimming squad took part in the CIF prelims on Tuesday, qualifying six men in events and two relays. Outstanding Matadors were Don Carlson, the sophomore who has a hobbie of breaking records in the 200 yard freestyle. His time of 2:03.5 in the prelims was fast enough for the meet mark of 2:01.4 set in 1966.

Phil Harter, second last year in the finals in the 100 yard backstroke, and Greg Wilhite, one of the county's top in the 100 yard breaststroke qualified.

John Weigit, Mt. Miguel's diving ace, qualified for the finals automatically when he broke the league record in route to winning diving honors in the league finals.

The Cinder Set

Mt. Miguel's cinder set, headed into San Diego Section CIF competition last week with sixteen spikers going into the preliminaries.

Of those who won the right to represent Mt. Miguel in the Grossmont League were Dave Storm in the 120 yard high hurdles, Billy Joe Winchester in the shot put and Randy Prodinzano in the 70 yd. high hurdles.

On Saturday the prelims took place in the Balboa stadium on the track that had been dubbed as "The fastest track that I have ever run on", by Ron Clark.

It was fast alright . . . for everybody except the Matadors. The only Matadors to come up with performances meriting a trip to the CIF finals were Bill Winchester, in the shot put, Randy Prodinzano, first in the 70 yd. high hurdles, Dean Davidson, the third in the 70 yd. high hurdles and fourth in the 120 yd. high hurdles, and ohn Hook, first in the class C division 100 yd. dash. Ross Ellis also qualified for the finals by taking first in the Class B long jump.

Dictionary Hiil Variance Denied

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors on Tuesday refused to allow a variance in La Presa's Dictionary Hill section that would have amounted to a large-scale rezone from single family to a duplex zone.

The applicant, Security Engineering Company, was denied permission to reduce side yards to zero so that two structures, each on a 25-foot lot, could be built side to side with a common wall, with with separate owners, or prospective owners.

Supervisors Robert Cozens said whatever the arguments were, the variance amounted to creating a duplex zone without any consideration of that is the proper section.

The company had asked for a continuance but this was denied. Fifteen or so people appeared ready to protest and had hired a lawyer to represent them. It was clear, however, that the board would still consider the rezone of the problem area if the company applies for the proper zone.

The board has also asked the planning commission to report on two zone changes for low cost housing. One would be for 5,000 square foot lots and the other for a duplex zone would allow sale of one half of a duplex to a separate owner on a lot as small as 2,500 square feet.

The lots in La Presa Heights are 2,500 square feet and were made so long before zoning. They are legal building sites if held in one ownership at the time of zoning.

'I'm Treasury Watchdog' Supervisor Dent Says

"I am proud of having earned the reputation of 'Watchdog of the San Diego County Treasury'", Supervisor Robert C. Dent told the La Mesa Rotary Club.

Incumbent San Diego County Supervisor Dent is a candidate for re-election to the 3rd District, a post he has held for the past three terms. He spoke at noon Wednesday to the Rotary Club in La Mesa's Recreation Center.

Dent said that economy in government starts with personal economics. He cited the fact that he does not require an assistant, that he has always traveled economy-class rather than first-class on county business.

Dent said, "I drive one of the low-priced automobiles while other governmental agencies use luxury autos."

Dent said, "The San Diego County taxpayer should know that our taxes are next to the lowest of California's 58 counties. This does not happen by spending money.

It is the result of careful examination of every dollar of public funds, before the check is signed. I caution every voter to beware of those who promise over-ambitious programs for the county and base those promises on your tax dollar."

County government is not a back-door government, according to Dent, but provides many services for the city-dweller. These include the Department of Public Health, County Hospital in Hillcrest, help for the needy of which 75 percent live in incorporated areas. Also, our system of courts are operated by and financed by the County but provide revenues to the City of San Diego and the other twelve cities in the County.

Dent said that the San Diego Stadium is the result of a joint-powers agreement between th County of San Diego and the City of San Diego.

"This magnificent Stadium which we all enjoy, serves as an excellent example of combined governmetal effort. Pooling the resources of the County and City enabled the residents of all San Diego County to have a multilpurpose stadium at the lowest possible cost," Dent said.

"The fact that it occupies both city and county lands, physically demonstrates the cooperation between the two governmental agencies for the benefit of the taxpayer and sports fan."

Social Security News

The Lemon Grove Review presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are thosee most frequently asked about Social Security. The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. I am a disabled widow, 63 years of age, and I receive a monthly benefit on my deceased husband's social security account. Am I now entitled to a larger payment because I am totally disabled?

A. No. Payments to disabled widows are lower because they are paid before age 60, and widows who began receiving benefits under the previous law will not be affected.

Q. I have to pay social security tax on the tips I receive as a waitress. What good does it do me?

A. Social security benefits are based on how much a person earns over the years. By adding your tips to your regular wages, you and your dependents will have greater social security protection in the event of your retirement, disability or death.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security District Office, 570 N. Second st., El Cajon, California 92021. The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

Is the word "candidato" similar to the English word "candidate?" Yes, "canidato" is a Spanish word which may be formed from the English word "candidate" by replacing the final "e" with the letter "o".

In Spanish, however, the next to last syllable is stressed. It is pronounced "kahn-dee-DAH-toh."

A phrase with the word "candidato" could be "Es usted un candidato?" for "Are you a candidate?" A response might be "Si, yo soy un candidato." for "Yes, I am a candidate."

You will notice that the word "es" is used in the above question. It would seem that the use of "es" with "usted" would not be correct grammar. The pharase "es usted" literally means "is you."

In Spanish we may use the third person form of the verb, "es", with the second person pronoun, "usted."

The word "campana" is translated to "campaign" in English. A question with this word might be "Hay una campana politica?" for "Is there a political campaign?" An affirmative response might be "Si, hay una campana politica." for "Yes, there is a political campaign."

The next question might be "Votamos por el?" for "Do you vote for him?" If the response is affirmative, we will say "Si, votamos por el." or "Yes, we will vote for him."

This week's practice phrases may be heard on your telephone when you dial 276-2762. An automatic recording will lead you in a practice session of saying the words and phrases in less than two minutes.

IMPODTANT PHRASES

Say "Es usted un candidato?" (ehs oo-STEHD oon kahn-dee-DAH-toh) for "Are you a candidate?" say "Si, you soy un candidato." (SEE yoh SOH-ee oon kahn-dee-DAH-toh) for "Yes, I am a candidate."

USEFUL PHRASES

Say "Hay una campana politica?" (AH-ee OON-nah kahm-PAHN-yah poh-LEE-tee-kah) for "Yes, there is a political campaign."

OTHER PHRASES

Say "Votamos por el?" (voh-TAH-mohs pohr ehl) for "Do we vote for him?" Say "Si, votamos por el." (SEE voh-TAH-mohs pohr ehl) for "Yes, we vote for him."

Juvenile Check Station For Tijuana Border

The California State Legislature this week passed (67-0) AB 1455, to provide for construction of a Boarder Juvenile Check Station at the Tijuana border crossing.

The bill authored by Assemblyman Wadie P. Deddeh (D-Chula Vista) directs the state to provide up to $100,000 to build a new Border Check Station. The present facility is scheduled to be demolished as a result of freeway expansion.

"Eighty percent of the teenagers that cross the border come from out of San Diego County", Assemblyman Deddeh stated. "By bill is designed to take a realistic approach to the payment of costs", Deddeh said.

Britain is attempting to hold wage increases to three percent.

Valley Kiwanis Plan New Fund Raising Project

The Spring Valley Kiwanis Club will soon be getting into its new fund-raising project, which has long been considered by the local club.

The last two weekends of June club members will be selling and delivering roses, raised in Spring Valley hothouses.

Cost for the roses will be $3.50 per dozen (donation), or $6 for two dozen for the miniatures $4 per dozen (donation) for the long-stemmed ones, or $7 for two dozen.

In giving the list of the five new members of the S. V. Kiwanis Club recently, one member's name was in error. It should have been George Vila instead of George Beeler.

Three of the new members at the May 15 meeting were presented aprons, which were signed by other members of the club, then these new members, in turn, did their stint at serving breakfast to the other members.

Art Festival Planned At Trinity Presbyterian

The 1968 Art Festival at Trinity Presbyterian Church is well into the planning stage. Called, "Trinity's annual summer smorgasbord of music, art and drama," the event is scheduled for Sunday, June 23, from 2 to 9 p.m. Bob and Beverly Donnell are the general chairmen.

As in the past there will be something for everyone — young and old, large and small — at the festival: displays of paintings, sculpture and other art forms, craft demonstrations, vocal and instrumental music, light entertainment, plays, dancing and dinner. Also baby-sitting.

The Donnells have named as heir sub-chairman: John Zimmerman, arts and crafts; Heide Klein, music; Dick Palmore, drama; Jim Stiteler, construction; Ted and Marian Olson, entertainment; Flo Watters, decorations; and Terry Harriman, publicity. The Senior High Fellowship will prepare and serve supper in the patio.

Persons caring to exhibit talent, share a hobby or just lend a helping hand, should get in touch with the proper chairman as soon as possible. There is plenty to be done by everyone.

Tax Relief

ance property taxes that accrue from increased assessments, he said.

He illustrated by describing a retired couple who lives in a cottage for which they paid $2,500 many years ago. The couple didn't want to sell or move, nor did thy have the income to pay the greatly increased taxes that came with increased valuation that came when the state built a freeway near the cottage.

The cottage now could be sold for $15,000.

"It might be possible to set aside the increased taxes as a lien against the property to be collected at the time of an estate sale. The heirs might collect perhaps $5,000 less but the couple need not deny themselves a loaf of bread to pay the tax obligation," he said.

"There is no problem that can't be solved, or laws that can't be changed if people, with the proper leadership want it," he said.

Fire Dept. Notes

Study Program Opens At YMCA

College bound high school graduates of the Heartland area again will get a chance at a nationally known "How to Study in College" course here July 8-12.

The Heartland YMCA announces that the program, a one week, five evening series of lectures developed by two Purdue University professors will be held at California Western, Boney Lecture Hall.

Because of the tremendous favorable response received from students who took the course last year, the Heartland YMCA immediately arranged with the authors of the course to present it here again this summer.

Some of the students own comments taken from the evaluation at the end of the course last year indicate the enthusiasm the youngsters demonstrated for the course content.

Not a remedial course, the "college survival" program is aimed squarely at a long overlooked college entrance problem:: the transition the student is forced to make from high school to the rigors of academic life at college.

The course was developed a number of years ago by Robert F. Schwarz, Dean of the Purdue University North Central Campus, and Howard D. Murdock of the Chemistry Department there.

Since then, the course has been offered at all five campuses of Purdue University in Indiana and at YMCA's across the nation. In 1967, it was offered at YMCA's to over 4000 students in 45 cities.

Subjects covered in the five lectures include: how people learn, why we forget, the art of listening, how to take college lecture notes, motivation for maximum college performance and how to plan your time.

A basic study formula, with techniques of review, themes and reports, preparing for and taking tests and examinations, and the vocabulary of college will be presented.

What you need to know about each course and professor, when and how to obtain academic assistance, understanding college libraries and how they differ, personal problems in adjustment to college living will close out the program.

"We are happy that the authors of the course have arranged to have the course presented here again," said Larry Oviatt, Heartland YMCA Program Director.

"It is another means where by the YMCA can offer real public service in the community. In this case, we are combining our resources with those of recognized college educators in an attack on a very real, but often overlooked, problem in education — the college freshman dropout."

Enrollment details are available from Larry Oviatt at the Heartland YMCA. Fee for the course is $20. The program is open only to high school graduates.

World War I Posters Are On Display

Grossmont College opened an exhibit of World War I poster Tuesday, May 21, in the Library Foyer. The historical posters were used to promote the sale of Liberty Bonds, donations to the Salvation Army, a support of the American Red Cross, and similar patriotic causes.

The posters were loaned to the college by Mrs. Evelyn Lee Fenton, 9457 Pike rd., Santee, through arrangements with college history instructor James P. Peters.

According to Mrs. Fenton, a student at Grossmont College, the 23 posters were collected by her father, John Zurcher, during his boyhood in Enterprise, Oregon.

The posters, some as large as 30 by 40 inches, will remain on display in the Library Foyer through May 31, and may be viewed from 8 a.m. to 10:30 p.m., Monday through Thursday; 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday; and 3 to 9 p.m. Sunday. The Library will be closed on Saturday, May 25, and Memorial Day, May 30.

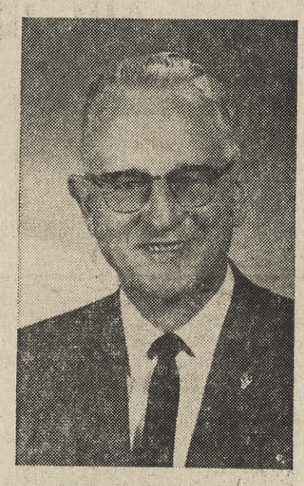
"Bob" Dent's Experience and Vision are Important to San Diego County's Growth and Progress

"BOB" DENT

—has NO business or political obligations . . . Will continue to devote full-time to the office of Supervisor.



to hear my opponent tell it on TV...

He would have you believe that he created the Stadium, sold the Bus Company to the City, was responsible for Friars Road completion and just about everything accomplished in the area for the past 5 to 10 years.

Fact is the County had a hand in most of the "projects of progress" — and now he tells you that he is the one to put the County on a "go-go" basis.

However, the County is growing rapidly in an orderly manner as the result of the vision and planning of "Bob" Dent and the present Board of Supervisors.

The cost per capita of San Diego County Government is next to lowest of the 58 California Counties, the county road program is progressing smoothly and it is doubtful if the taxpayers of the 3rd District are going to fall for the "costly magic" of my opponent who is still drawing pay as a San Diego Councilman.
